A PRAYER GUIDE FOR THE SAINTS

Restore • Replenish • Rebuild • Remember • Remove • Request

Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat: but I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren.

LUKE 22:31-32

The Six Reasons

Tis the RE-Season. RE is only a prefix, and a prefix cannot stand alone — it must attach to something that already exists. So every RE is God testifying that something was there first.

RESTORE

Joel 2:25

He settles the account the locust opened.

REPLENISH

2 Kings 4:1-7

He fills again, and He fills to the brim.

REBUILD

Amos 9:11

He closes the breaches, then raises the walls.

REMEMBER

Ezekiel 37:1-14

RE plus MEMBER. He reassembles the parts.

REMOVE

John 11:38-44

Before the restoration, He takes away the stone.

REQUEST

Luke 22:31-32

He ever liveth to make intercession.

How to Use This Guide

Read the scripture aloud first.

Let the word set the direction before anyone prays. We are not praying our opinions. We are praying His promise back to Him.

Pray one Reseason at a time.

Six words, six focuses. Do not rush all six in one sitting. One per day works well across a prayer week.

Pray it personally, then corporately.

First over your own house. Then over this church, this city, and the doors God is preparing to open.

Write down what He says.

Use the lines in this guide. A reseason is worth a record — you will want to read it back a year from now.

Before God ever says RE over your life, He has already said YES about your life.

Why We Pray in Prefixes

RE comes to us from the Latin. It means BACK, and it means AGAIN. But it is only a prefix, and a prefix has no life of its own. It cannot stand alone. It must attach itself to something that already exists.

WHICH MEANS

You cannot rebuild what was never built.

You cannot restore what was never yours.

You cannot replenish what was never full.

You cannot revive what was never alive.

THEREFORE

Every RE is God going on record that something was there first. There was an original. There was a design. There was a purpose — and it did not stop being the purpose just because the season went dark.

It is of the LORD's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not. They are new every morning: great is thy faithfulness.

LAMENTATIONS 3:22-23

God does not need new material. He is not looking for fresh clay. He specializes in unfinished business.

Two Requests Were Filed

On the night before the cross, hell filed a petition and heaven filed an intercession. Both were heard. One prevailed.

THE ACCUSER ASKED

Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat.

DESIRED TO HAVE is a legal word — a formal demand that a prisoner be handed over. He had to ask. He has never had authority to take. And he asked to sift WHEAT. Nobody shakes worthless things.

THE INTERCESSOR ASKED

But I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren.

Verse 31 is plural. Verse 32 is singular. Out of twelve men, Jesus named one. He did not pray that Peter would not fall — He prayed that his faith would not run out. And He said WHEN, not IF.

And the Father honored the Intercessor.

Praying the Peter Prayer

But go your way, tell his disciples and Peter that he goeth before you into Galilee.

MARK 16:7

Why name him separately? Because Peter no longer believed he belonged in the category his disciples. So heaven put his name in the resurrection announcement.

PRAY THIS

- Lord, let not my faith fail. I may be shaken, but do not let the light go out.
- Put my name back in the announcement. I have taken myself off the list — write me back in.
- Take me back to the fire, not to shame me, but to rewrite what happened there.
- Whatever fell away in the sifting was never wheat. Thank You for what remains.
- Make me load-bearing. Let my restoration hold somebody else up.

WRITE IT DOWN

RESTORE

HEBREW: SHALAM — TO REPAY AND MAKE WHOLE

And I will restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten.

JOEL 2:25

Shalam shares a root with shalom. Restoration is not a refund and not an apology. It is repayment that makes whole — peace with the arithmetic finally settled.

PRAY THIS

- Lord, settle the account the locust opened. Not a partial credit — make it whole.
- Restore what was eaten in the years I was not watching.
- Restore relationships, ministries, and confidence the enemy ate in silence.
- Let the restoration be visible, so that it testifies.

WHAT HE SAID TO ME

REPLENISH

HEBREW: MALE — TO FILL, TO BE FULL

Bring me yet a vessel. And he said unto her, There is not a vessel more. And the oil stayed.

2 KINGS 4:6

God does not top off. He fills again, and He fills to the brim. The oil only stopped when the vessels ran out — the supply was never the limitation.

PRAY THIS

- Lord, I bring You empty vessels. Do not stop the oil while I still have room.
- Refill what ministry, grief, and giving have drained out of me.
- Fill this church again — the altar, the pulpit, the prayer room.
- Give me capacity to hold what You are about to pour.

WHAT HE SAID TO ME

REBUILD

NOT A MONUMENT TO THE RUIN — A WORKING STRUCTURE

I will raise up the tabernacle of David that is fallen, and close up the breaches thereof, and I will build it as in the days of old.

AMOS 9:11

He closes the breaches first, then He raises the walls. And He does not rebuild a memorial to what fell — He builds it to function, as in the days of old.

PRAY THIS

- Lord, close the breaches before You raise the walls.
- Rebuild what fell in my family, and let it function, not just stand.
- Give me the patience of the bone to bone season — structure comes before breath.
- Raise up builders in this house who will not quit at the halfway mark.

WHAT HE SAID TO ME

REMEMBER

RE + MEMBER — GOD REASSEMBLES THE PARTS

Our bones are dried, and our hope is lost: we are cut off for our parts.

EZEKIEL 37:11

A member is a portion of a body. To re-member is not to think about — it is to put the parts back together. And in Hebrew, when God remembers, God moves.

PRAY THIS

- Lord, remember me — and let Your remembering move, as it moved for Noah and for Rachel.
- Gather the scattered parts of my life and set bone to bone.
- Reconnect what was severed in this body — families, friendships, ministries.
- Then breathe. Let the assembly become an army.

WHAT HE SAID TO ME

REMOVE

BEFORE THE RESTORATION, A REMOVAL

Jesus said, Take ye away the stone.

JOHN 11:39

God shakes what can be shaken so the unshakable may remain. If He has been removing things, do not fight Him at the stone — He is clearing the mouth of the tomb.

PRAY THIS

- Lord, remove the stone at the mouth of what You are about to raise.
- Take out of me whatever cannot come into the next season.
- Help me not to grieve what You are removing. Give me trust at the tomb.
- Remove the stumbling block out of the way of Your people.

WHAT HE SAID TO ME

REQUEST

HELL FILED ONE. JESUS FILED A BETTER ONE.

He is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them.

HEBREWS 7:25

He EVER liveth. That prayer did not end at the resurrection. The same voice that said, but I have prayed for thee, is still saying it over a name you thought was scratched off.

PRAY THIS

- Lord, I am asking. Ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full.
- Thank You that You are still interceding for me right now.
- Give us the nations. Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance.
- Make this church a house that asks, and a house that expects an answer.

WHAT HE SAID TO ME

LATIN: RE (AGAIN) + VIVERE (TO LIVE)

Revival Means To Live Again

Revival has a prerequisite. There must have been life first. You cannot revive a thing that never had breath in it.

WHAT IT IS NOT

Revival is not evangelism. The world does not need revival. The world needs salvation.

WHAT IT IS

Revival is for the church — for those who once had it, and cooled. It is what God does with a coal that is still there.

Wilt thou not revive us again: that thy people may rejoice in thee?

PSALM 85:6

Stir up the gift of God which is in thee. (2 Timothy 1:6)

ANAZOPUREO — ana, again; zoos, alive; pur, fire. To rekindle a dying coal back into open flame. Paul did not tell Timothy to go get a new gift. The coal was still there. It had only stopped being tended.

PRAY THIS

- Lord, revive Your work in the midst of the years.
- Stir the coal in me. I do not need a new gift — I need the fire tended.
- Let this house burn again, and let the city see the light of it.

Revive or Revile

A church without revival does not stay neutral. Familiarity has its own gravity, and it pulls in one direction only.

REVILE — FROM THE LATIN VILIS

Cheap. Common. Of no value. To revile something is to treat as common what was once treated as holy.

And the people spake against God, and against Moses... and our soul loatheth this light bread.

NUMBERS 21:5

That bread was a miracle. It fell from heaven six mornings a week for forty years. But they had seen it so many times that a miracle became a menu complaint.

Ye offer polluted bread upon mine altar... and ye say, The table of the LORD is contemptible.

MALACHI 1:7

These were ministers. They never walked away from the altar. They simply stopped being moved by it.

What we do not revive, we will eventually revile.
Either the fire gets stirred, or the fire gets familiar.

Pray for the Doors

And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven.

MATTHEW 16:19

He put the keys in the hand of the man He knew would deny Him — and He knew it when He handed them over. A key holder has one job: be at the door when the arrival comes.

Acts 2, the Jews. Acts 8, Samaria. Acts 10, a Roman centurion named Cornelius. Three doors, one key holder. Had God written Peter off at that fire, Cornelius would have prayed into a closed heaven.

Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost.

ACTS 11:16

The man who was remembered became the man who remembers. That is what restoration does — it puts the word back in your mouth.

PRAY THIS

- Lord, restore me quickly — somebody is standing outside a door only my key opens.
- Show me the Cornelius You have already prepared.
- Open doors in Old Bridge and across New Jersey that no man can shut.
- Put the word back in my mouth, as Peter said: then remembered I the word of the Lord.

Tis the RE-Season. He is going to remember, restore, replenish, rebuild, and remove what has to go — and He is waiting on somebody to ask.

THIS IS YOUR

RESEASON

He is going to remember. He is going to restore. He is going to replenish. He is going to rebuild. He is going to remove what has to go. And He is waiting on somebody to make one request.

Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them.

HEBREWS 7:25
